FOOTAGE AGREEMENT

Carte Blanche & M-Net • Video & Archival Material Licence Agreement

This Agreement is entered into by and between:

Electronic Media Network Proprietary Limited ("M-Net") and Combined Artistic Productions CC ("the producer") and the Rights Holder / Licensor named below ("the owner").

1. TERMS OF LICENCE & BROADCAST PERMISSION

1. Grant of Licence: The owner hereby grants the producer a non-exclusive, irrevocable licence to incorporate and use portions of the video, archival, CCTV, or photographic material described below ("the footage") in the story specified below, to be broadcast on Carte Blanche on M-Net, and across any MultiChoice platform or digital service as M-Net sees fit, in perpetuity.

2. Fair Use & Illustration: The producer undertakes to use the footage fairly to illustrate and report on issues pertaining to the story in accordance with journalistic fair dealing and reporting standards.

3. On-Screen Credit: The producer undertakes to provide the owner with an on-screen courtesy credit for the footage if specifically requested below.

4. Royalty-Free: The owner confirms that this licence is granted on a royalty-free basis and the producer will not pay the owner for the use of the footage.

5. Ownership of Programme: The television programme in its completed broadcast form is the exclusive property of M-Net and Carte Blanche.

6. Protection of Original Footage: The footage in its raw, original form remains the copyright property of the owner, and Carte Blanche & M-Net shall not share, copy, resell, or distribute the standalone footage to external third-party news organisations or persons without consent.
