MUSIC AGREEMENT

Carte Blanche & M-Net • Music Synchronisation & Broadcast Licence Agreement

This Agreement is entered into by and between:

Electronic Media Network Proprietary Limited ("M-Net") and Combined Artistic Productions CC ("the producer") and the Composer, Artist, or Rights Holder named below ("the owner").

1. TERMS OF MUSIC SYNCHRONISATION & BROADCAST LICENCE

1. Grant of Synchronisation Licence: The owner hereby grants the producer a non-exclusive, worldwide licence to synchronise, incorporate and use portions of the musical compositions and sound recordings described below ("the music") in the story specified below, for broadcast on Carte Blanche on M-Net, and across any MultiChoice platform or digital service as M-Net sees fit, in perpetuity.

2. Editorial & Story Illustration: The producer undertakes to use the music fairly to underscore and illustrate issues pertaining to the story in accordance with professional broadcast standards.

3. Royalty-Free Synchronisation: The owner confirms that this synchronisation licence is granted on a royalty-free basis and the producer will not pay the owner a fee for the broadcast synchronisation of the music.

4. Ownership of Programme: The television programme in its completed broadcast form is the exclusive property of M-Net and Carte Blanche.

5. Protection of Musical Work: The music in its entirety remains the copyright property of the owner, and Carte Blanche & M-Net shall not share, copy, or distribute the standalone audio recordings outside the context of the programme.

6. Warranties: The owner warrants that they are the sole creator, rights holder, or authorised representative with full legal authority to grant these synchronisation rights without infringing third-party rights.
